WHO WILL ATTEND

AMCCBS UNITES LEADING STAKEHOLDERS FROM ACROSS THE HEALTH ECOSYSTEM.
Frontline healthcare providers, payers, employers, life sciences and pharma services, government, health associations, and forward-thinking companies in the hub of health innovation will network, share provocative perspectives, and devise groundbreaking strategies to reimagine and reshape the future of cancer care delivery across the United States.

Interact with oncology professionals from around the country who face similar organizational challenges. Develop partnerships with cutting-edge industry partners that offer solutions to meet the demands of business, workforce productivity, and value-based care delivery. All individuals engaged in cancer care operations should attend, including:

- Hospital presidents/CEOs/COOs/VPs/trustees
- Operations, development, and finance directors
- Chief medical officers and medical directors
- Oncology clinicians (medical, radiation, surgical, pharmacy)
- Oncology program and practice administrators, managers, and service line executives
- Healthcare consultants, vendors, and suppliers
- Pharmaceutical and biotechnology manufacturers
- Medical information technology specialists
- Government affairs and health policy directors
- Cancer program marketing and health public relations professionals

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

The agenda will inspire new ways of thinking about—and solving for—the challenges facing oncology professionals today.

GENERAL SESSIONS offer novel approaches to forecasting—and navigating—the latest shifts in oncology. The agenda divides into four tracks, providing strategic insights and forward-thinking solutions. These BREAKOUT SESSIONS are outstanding opportunities for personalized learning and peer-to-peer conversations. CASE STUDIES offer practical takeaways, “from the field” insights, and effective practices, while the DEEP DIVE WORKSHOPS combine bi-directional learning, small group dialogue, and interactive exercises.

Thursday, March 21

8:00 – 9:00 AM GENERAL SESSION

Cancer Care’s Future Physician, Nurse, and Administrator: 2020–2030
Joe Flower, Healthcare Futurist

Value-based care models center on improving patient outcomes, reducing healthcare costs, and rewarding for both efficiency and effectiveness. Learn how physicians, nurses, and administrators need to grow and adapt within the next 10 years—both as professionals and key members of a resilient, results-driven oncology team—to help their cancer program or practice successfully address emerging business, quality, technology, and policy trends.

9:00 – 9:30 AM GENERAL SESSION

The Future Cancer Service Line
Allen S. Lichter, MD, FASCO, Senior Partner, TRG Healthcare

In this increasingly competitive healthcare environment, innovative approaches will be imperative to enable health systems to grow their market presence. Hear how the future direction of oncology services will be influenced by trends in artificial intelligence, predictive analytics, and telehealth; marketplace forces, such as the purchase of physician practices by private equity firms; and federal policies around drug pricing reform, 340B, and site neutrality.

10:00 – 11:15 AM GENERAL SESSION
Organizational Imperatives for the Delivery of Cancer Care
Michael Kolodziej, MD, FACP, Vice President and Chief Innovation Officer, ADVI (MODERATOR)
Roger Brito, DO, Senior Medical Director, AETNA—Payers
Russell Gollard, MD, Medical Director, OptumCare Cancer Care—Non-Hospital Integrated Delivery Networks
Harlan Levine, MD, President of Strategy and Business Ventures, City of Hope—Academic and Research Institutions
Erich A. Mounce, MSHA, COO, OneOncology—Oncology Networks
Barry Russo, CEO, Center for Cancer & Blood Disorders—Independent Medical Group Practices
Deirdre Saulet, PhD, Researcher, The Advisory Board Company
Donald “Skip” Trump, MD, CEO and Executive Director, Inova Schar Cancer Institute—Hospital Integrated Delivery Networks

Hear perspectives from a multi-stakeholder panel—representing care setting vantage points—about efforts to remain productive and economically viable given the growing number of administrative, economic, technological, and staffing constraints. Learn how providers can optimize their performance to support the goals of their organization, the similarities and differences between these delivery care settings, and how providers need to respond to deliver the highest value patient care and promote fruitful partnerships.

11:15 AM – 12:00 PM
A Look into the Crystal Ball: Impact of Federal Policy on Cancer Delivery

Take an “Inside the Beltway” look at the federal policy shifts that have the potential to shake up the cancer care delivery system, business operations, reimbursement, and patient access to care for years to come. With a broad view of the cancer care landscape, we will examine and debate the government’s role in—and response to—the rapidly evolving healthcare field and the implications for consumers of care.

NEW! DEEP DIVE WORKSHOPS

Friday, March 22, 1:00 – 3:30 PM

Immerse yourself in focused workshops designed to provide interactive, bi-directional learning on hot-button issues in the delivery of cancer care. Workshop participants will define, dissect, and brainstorm on identified challenges and opportunities. When registering, select the deep dive workshop you would like to attend:

1. Patient Education and Engagement
2. Clinician Resiliency and Workforce Issues
3. Strategic Reorganization and Consolidation Options for Oncology Providers

To allow for an optimal learning environment, seating will be limited. You must attend the Annual Meeting in order to register for a deep dive workshop. Additional details can be found at accc-cancer.org/deep-dives.

SPECIAL EVENTS

ACCC CAPITOL HILL DAY
ACCC PROVIDER MEMBERS ONLY
Wednesday, March 20, 7:00 AM – 5:00 PM

As Congress continues to deliberate reforms to our healthcare system, now is the time to come to Capitol Hill to share the real-world impact that federal health policy has on cancer patients and care delivery in your community.

You’ll partner with colleagues from across your state to meet with legislators, where you’ll speak to the importance of improved funding for research, greater access to quality healthcare, and payment reform.

Who Should Attend? Cancer center executives, physicians, nurses, administrators, pharmacists, social workers, financial advocates, and other members of the cancer care team. You must be an ACCC member on the cancer care team to participate.

Cost: ACCC Capitol Hill Day is included with your Annual Meeting registration. Visit ACCC-CANCER.ORG/CapitolHillDay for more details.

SURGICAL ONCOLOGY PRE-CONFERENCE
Wednesday, March 20, 9:00 AM – 4:30 PM

Surgical services are not always integrated within the larger cancer care delivery framework, leading to a disconnect that can compromise the coordination of care among the multidisciplinary team. Through the examination of three case studies, we’ll explore the drivers and obstacles, building blocks, costs, and effective practices of a successful surgical oncology program. Participants will have the opportunity to critique, question, and learn from peers who have developed integrated surgical oncology programs.

Cost: Complimentary with your Annual Meeting registration. Can’t attend the full meeting? ACCC members can register for the pre-conference for $70; non-members can attend for $150. Visit ACCC-CANCER.ORG/Pre-Conferences for agenda information.

RADIATION ONCOLOGY PRE-CONFERENCE
Wednesday, March 20, 11:00 AM – 4:30 PM

Explore forward-thinking strategies necessary for supporting radiation oncology program viability and innovation. Participate in robust, multidisciplinary discussions that address the critical issues—and opportunities—facing today’s radiation oncology practices and programs.

Cost: Complimentary with your Annual Meeting registration. Can’t attend the full meeting? ACCC members can register for the pre-conference for $70; non-members can attend for $150. Visit ACCC-CANCER.ORG/Pre-Conferences for agenda information.

ACCC ONCOLOGY CARE MODEL COLLABORATIVE WORKSHOP
Friday, March 22, 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM

This exclusive bi-annual event for cancer care professionals participating in the Oncology Care Model (OCM) is the only live forum to discuss key challenges and successes with fellow OCM-practices; share solutions to meeting requirements; and learn about tools, tips, and best practices to continue transformational changes to achieve the goals of the OCM in the latter half of the model’s implementation.

This workshop is exclusive to participating OCM practices as well as funders who sponsor the ACCC OCM Collaborative.

Cost: ACCC members and non-members who participate in the Oncology Care Model may register for $150. If you attend the full Annual Meeting, registration is complimentary. Visit ACCC-CANCER.ORG/OCMCWorkshop for more details.
