ACCC ONCOLOGY REIMBURSEMENT MEETINGS

Navigate the annual changes in oncology reimbursement and regulations, gain tools to strengthen your program's operations, and accelerate your knowledge on the measures you can take now—and down the road—to succeed in this rapidly changing healthcare landscape.

- Review the latest trends in oncology coding and billing based on the 2019 Medicare Final Rules
- Assess financial strategies to track and improve the financial health of your cancer program
- Gain insight into upcoming coding and reimbursement challenges related to financial counseling, compliance, and authorizations in medical and radiation oncology
- Identify opportunities to improve the financial navigation services at your cancer program
- Investigate the impact of federal health policies on your cancer program

"This was my first time attending an ACCC meeting and I am very impressed with the content and networking. The presentations were relevant and excellent. Definitely worth my membership"

MARIA ESCOBAR, CPC, CHONC,
ROCC, Senior Coder,
Kelsey-Sebold Cancer Center

WHO SHOULD ATTEND Billers and Coders; Cancer Program and Practice Administrators, Managers, and Directors; Financial Advocates; Patient Navigators; Social Workers; and all cancer care team members involved in oncology business and reimbursement.

COST Don't miss this FREE meeting, one valuable benefit of ACCC membership. Oncology State Society Network members may also attend for FREE—a select member benefit from ACCC.

Non-ACCC members are invited to attend for the low registration rate of $149*.

The Association of Community Cancer Centers (ACCC) is the leading education and advocacy organization for the multidisciplinary cancer team. ACCC is a powerful network of 25,000 cancer care professionals from 2,100 hospitals and practices nationwide. ACCC is recognized as the premier provider of resources for the entire oncology care team. For more information, visit accc-cancer.org or call 301.984.9496. Follow us on Facebook, Twitter, and LinkedIn, and read our blog, ACCCBuzz.

* If you join ACCC as an Individual Member ($149 annual dues), you can attend these meetings—and others—for FREE! ACCC members receive practical, problem-solving resources and professional development opportunities, abundant online and in-person networking, and access to expert analysis and support of critical legislative initiatives.

Oncology Coding Updates

Coding Strategies, Inc.

The CY 2019 Medicare Final Rules include several changes for next year as well as some important changes for providers to prepare for CYs 2020 and 2021. One key change: nonexcepted off-campus provider-based departments are no longer excluded from 340B Drug Program pricing. Review important E&M documentation and code changes for CY 2019, new procedure codes, and expanded packaging in the hospital outpatient department. Plus information to help your staff complete Appropriate Use Criteria using Clinical Decision Support Mechanisms. This fast-paced session provides tools to navigate the regulations that impact oncology coding and billing.

Practical Tips to Improve Your Cancer Program's Revenue Cycle Management

Ricky Newton, CPA, Cancer Specialists of Tidewater

Managing data to track the performance of your cancer program and implement sound financial strategies is imperative to survive in today's economic environment. Gain practical management tips for increasing efficiencies and improving your revenue cycle management, accounts receivable auditing policies, and payer contracting.

11:40 AM - 12:45 PM

Federal Health Policy—How It May Impact Your Program

Blair Burnett, Association of Community Cancer Centers

Learn how shifts in federal policies may impact your bottom line, from the site-neutral payment policy to the continued push toward value-based care through MACRA's Quality Payment Program and the Oncology Care Model, to drug pricing reform efforts and changes under the 340B Drug Pricing Program. Bring this information back to your team to help them make better-informed decisions when it comes to short- and long-term strategic planning.

"The topics were exactly aligned with some of the biggest reimbursement initiatives that our cancer program is working on."

DAVID TATMAN, Director
Mercy Medical Center North Iowa, Mercy Cancer Center

Overcoming 2019 Documentation and Coding Hurdles

Ron DiGiaino, MBA, FACHE, Revenue Cycle Inc.

This year is pivotal for oncology coding and reimbursement, and correct documentation will be crucial for determining and supporting medical necessity. Hear an in-depth review of coding and reimbursement trends, including financial counseling, compliance, and authorizations in medical and radiation oncology. Gain tactical knowledge to support your department and help overcome reimbursement obstacles.

2:35 - 3:40 PM

Growing & Sustaining a Robust Financial Navigation Program

Dan Sherman, MA, LPC, The NaVectis Group

Discover strategies to grow your cancer program's financial advocacy services by learning proactive tactics to address and treat financial toxicity. Recognize the importance of continued staff education and how to establish a systematic process of engaging staff with the right patient population. Uncover ways to measure the impact on your cancer program's bottom line, and how to use those savings as a justification to strengthen and grow your financial advocacy program.
