ACCC 2020 ONCOLOGY REIMBURSEMENT MEETINGS

The annual changes in oncology reimbursement and regulations often leads to more questions than answers, but the Association of Community Cancer Centers (ACCC) is here to help.

At the ACCC Oncology Reimbursement Meetings, we can equip you and your colleagues with the tools needed to strengthen your program's operations, accelerate your knowledge in oncology business, and take on this rapidly changing healthcare landscape.

In just one day, you'll have the opportunity to:

- Review the latest trends in oncology coding and billing based on the 2020 Medicare Final Rules
- Assess financial strategies to track and improve the financial health of your cancer program
- Gain insight to upcoming coding and reimbursement challenges related to financial counseling, compliance, and authorizations in medical and radiation oncology
- Identify opportunities to improve the financial navigation services at your practice or program

Building your oncology network just got easier! The intimate nature of these meetings allow you to connect with like-minded professionals that face similar challenges, engage in personal conversations with speakers, and learn tactical steps to help tackle the challenges your cancer program or practice faces.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Billers and Coders; Cancer Program and Practice Administrators, Managers, and Directors; Financial Advocates; Patient Navigators; Social Workers; and all cancer care team members involved in oncology business and reimbursement.

COST

Don't miss this FREE meeting, one valuable benefit of ACCC membership. Oncology State Society at ACCC members may also attend for FREE—a select member benefit from ACCC.

Non-ACCC members are invited to attend for the low registration rate of $155*.

* If you join ACCC as an Individual Member ($155 annual dues), you can attend these meetings—and others—for FREE! ACCC members receive practical, problem-solving resources and professional development opportunities, abundant online and in-person networking, and access to expert analysis and support of critical legislative initiatives.

Encourage your program to consider Cancer Program Membership, which benefits everyone on your cancer team. Visit accc-cancer.org/membership or email membership@accc-cancer.org to see how ACCC resources can support your entire multidisciplinary program.

The Association of Community Cancer Centers (ACCC) is the leading education and advocacy organization for the cancer care community. Founded in 1974, ACCC is a powerful network of 25,000 multidisciplinary practitioners from 2,100 hospitals and practices nationwide. As advances in cancer screening and diagnosis, treatment options, and care delivery models continue to evolve—so has ACCC—adapting its resources to meet the changing needs of the entire oncology care team.
