• Advocacy to promote your interests in healthcare policy

Added together, it's an incredible value, designed to help you excel in the field of cancer care delivery.

Experience what your peers already know. ACCC membership provides the solutions you’ve been seeking.
The Association of Community Cancer Centers understands that—regardless of your role on the cancer team—having an impact on the lives of patients with cancer is the most important part of your work. ACCC shares in your mission to deliver quality care to patients. That’s why we offer in-depth tools and abundant opportunities to connect with a unique peer network of oncology professionals. Count the ways ACCC can help you succeed:

- ACCCExchange is a dynamic, member-driven discussion forum. Every day, members share tools, advice, experience, and solutions—making this vibrant online community one of our most valued member benefits.

- Oncology Issues is the premier journal for the oncology community. Each issue features articles focused on topical issues and strategies to help members provide quality care.

- ACCC Provider Resources help members go beyond understanding “what” must be done to care for patients and reveal the “how-to’s,” putting knowledge into practice to improve care delivery. Overcome challenges and meet new standards with online resources including webinars, publications, and toolkits on cancer types, practice improvement, supportive care, and pharmacy.

- The Institute for Clinical Immuno-Oncology (ICLIO) is the only initiative to prepare multidisciplinary cancer care providers for the complex implementation of immuno-oncology in the community setting. ICLIO is an Institute of ACCC.
STRENGTHEN YOUR BUSINESS KNOWLEDGE

ACCC knows that keeping your program or practice financially strong is essential to your mission of providing care for patients with cancer. We offer resources and guidance on the business side of delivering cancer care—information needed more than ever in today’s challenging healthcare landscape.

- National meetings provide unparalleled learning and networking opportunities for ACCC members and offer expert perspectives, realistic solutions, and innovative approaches to business, economic, and programmatic issues.

- Free Oncology Reimbursement Meetings offer a full-spectrum look at oncology reimbursement, providing region-specific coding and billing information, insight on coverage and reimbursement changes, and legislation and regulation updates.

- The Patient Assistance and Reimbursement Guide is one of ACCC’s most valuable tools. Members look to the Guide as the resource for information on pharmaceutical and non-pharmaceutical patient assistance programs. Use it to meet your patients’ financial needs and help to ensure the long-term viability of your program or practice.

- The ACCC Trends in Cancer Programs survey will help you zoom in on the big picture business aspects of delivering cancer care and benchmark your performance. Use these annual survey results to understand national oncology trends and stay competitive in a rapidly-changing marketplace.

JOIN A VALUABLE COMMUNITY THAT CONTRIBUTES TO YOUR PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT.
ADVOCATE FOR QUALITY CARE

Legislative and regulatory issues have a far-reaching impact on cancer care, on your professional future, and ultimately on how you are able to deliver high quality care.

- Members-only conference calls on proposed and final rules from CMS, as well as other legislative and regulatory issues, provide timely expert analysis so that you can stay current with changes.

- Our annual Capitol Hill Day gives you the opportunity to unite your voice with other members and speak up on issues important to the oncology community.

- The ACCC Legislative Action Center is the online hub for advocacy news and tools. Clear, concise materials explain the impact of policies on cancer care delivery. Templates and scripts make it easy to reach out to your elected officials on key issues.

THERE’S MORE!

The Financial Advocacy Network (FAN) provides needed resources and expands the skills and knowledge base of providers who deal directly with patients on complex financial issues surrounding their cancer diagnosis and treatment. Tools and resources include skill-based educational materials and online learning modules.
