

contents

Oncology Issues
Vol. 39 | No. 2

6

Improving the Care of Patients Newly Diagnosed With Breast Cancer

Prior to 2020, patients newly diagnosed with breast cancer experienced treatment delays and decentralized scheduling that often resulted in multiple visits on different days and at different locations. Read how Atrium Health Wake Forest Baptist Comprehensive Cancer Center developed a coordinated, multidisciplinary approach to transform the patient experience and improve timeliness of care.

By Beth Fisher, Hunter Hayes, Kim Stanbery, and Kelly D. Simpson

12 Integrating Discrete Genomic Data with an EHR Improves Patient Care, Provider Satisfaction, and Program Metrics

By Karen Huelsman, Leah Vasiliadis, Adam Liette, Karen Wernke, Andrew Parchman, James Maher, and Courtney Rice

25 AI-Driven Patient Charting for Rapid, Efficient, Effective Cohort Sizing, and Patient Inclusion

Deep 6 AI's Bryan Allinson interviews Dan Fort, PhD, a biomedical research informatics leader and associate professor for the Ochsner Center for Outcomes Research

32 The Impact of the Living Well After Cancer Program on Multiple Indicators of Wellness and Quality of Life: A Community-Based Feasibility Study

By Nouf Alhomaiddhi, Gabrielle Riazi, Ndifreke Etim, Mike Alpert, Sarah Flores, Danielle Kline, Haley Allen, Aditi Vyas, Denise Johnson, and Jessica Clague DeHart

39 Feasibility of a Physical Activity Index in Clinical Practice: Perspectives of Providers and Cancer Patients

By Brianna N Leitzelar, Frank Perna, and Shirley M. Bluethmann

45 A Treatment-at-Home Pilot: Barriers to Home Cancer Care

By Bobby Daly, Jennie Huang, Jane Maiorano, Melissa Lee-Teh, Cheryl Gilroy, Elaine Duck, Jill Ackerman, Elizabeth Rodriguez, Jennifer Tota, and Diane L. Reidy-Lagunes

54 The Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services Will Pay for Patient Navigation—Now What?

By Mandi L. Pratt-Chapman, Gabrielle Rocque, Julie McMahon, Manali Patel, Taneal Carter, Nancy Pena, Poorna Kushalnagar, Lexi Boyd, Reesa J. Sherin, Jessica Quiring, Zarek Mena, Linda Burhansstipanov, Don S. Dizon, Clara Lambert, Samuel Cykert, and Julie E. Bauman

DEPARTMENTS

- 3 From the Editor | Cultivating Strong Teams in Oncology Care
- 5 President's Message | Reimagining Community Engagement and Equity in Cancer
- 64 Fast Facts | Community engagement recommendations to reduce racial disparities in access to cancer care
- 66 Issues | 2024 ACCC Hill Day

- 68 Compliance | Place of Service Codes: Key to Compliant Billing
- 71 Views | A Purpose-Driven Visit to Puerto Rico
- 73 Spotlight | Maroon Cancer Center, Cleveland Clinic, Weston, Florida
- 75 Action | ACCC 50th Annual Meeting & Cancer Center Business Summit, and more
- 84 Tools | Approved drugs, and more