THE INAUGURAL CAROLINAS CANCER CONFERENCE

August 2 – 4, 2024

Wild Dunes Resort, Isle of Palms, SC

The Inaugural Carolinas Cancer Conference hosted by the South Carolina Oncology Society (SCOS) and North Carolina Oncology Association (NCOA) allows you to join your peers for two days of education and collaboration on the state of cancer care. Attendees value not only the professional development but the barrier island beauty of the Wild Dunes Resort and family-friendly activities that are part of this event.

Coming to you live in August, reserve your seat to hear:

- ➔ Engaging keynote session from the American comedian, ophthalmologist, and cancer survivor Dr. Glaucomflecken!
- ➔ Improve patient outcomes and access with updates on the latest advancements in palliative care and novel solutions for treating a range of cancer types.
- ➔ The latest on the Carolinas health care policy and how these changes may affect your patients access to treatment and your practice.
